HEAR TERRIFYING TALES FROM HAUNTED PHILADELPHIA ON THE SPIRITS OF '76 GHOST TOUR OF PHILADELPHIA™

Walk the Cobblestone Streets of Historic Philadelphia to See More than 20 of Philly's Frights & Sights™

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania – May 21, 2008 – The Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour of Philadelphia announced its new Summer 2008 schedule. The evening ghost tour of Historic Philadelphia will run now through November 2008.

The Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour is “1 part history, 2 parts haunt!” Guests who dare to take the Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour will visit more than 20 scary sites to hear Philadelphia’s haunted facts and folklore. Travel the cobblestone streets of Old City with Philly’s best ghost tour to hear stories about the Spirits of '76, featuring:

- Haunted Facts - Hear stories about the Master of the Macabre, Edgar Allan Poe, who used to reside in Philadelphia, and learn about Leo Callahan, the only prisoner to escape from Eastern State Penitentiary and never be re-captured!
- Haunted Folklore - Learn about the legendary ghosts that inhabit Independence Hall, the spirits of Carpenters' Hall, the dancing statue of Benjamin Franklin at Library Hall and paranormal Pine Street happenings.
- Dramatic Movie Sets - See famous film locations from big screen thrillers such as Shooter, National Treasure and more!

Guests may be lucky enough to encounter the spirits of Ben Franklin, Dr. Benjamin Rush, Bishop White, Betsy Ross, and more. This family-friendly tour is a great option as a before or after-dinner activity.

“People are ‘dying’ to take the new Spirits of '76 Ghost Tour since it is such a great way to experience Haunted Philadelphia. Along the tour, guests will hear the spellbinding stories and terrifying tales of the supernatural,” stated Jonathan Bari, founder of the Spirits of '76
